Election of officers and ordinary committee members

A member is eligible to be elected or appointed as a committee member if the member is 18 years of age or older and entitled to vote at a general meeting of the Association. An eligible member of the Association may nominate him or herself, or with the members consent, be nominated by another member.

Separate elections must be held for each of the following positions; Commodore, Vice-Commodore, Rear-Commodore, Secretary and Treasurer. A member who is nominated for a position and fails to be elected to that position may be nominated for any other position for which an election is yet to be held.

If only one member is nominated for the position, the Chairperson of the meeting must declare the member elected to the position. If more than one member is nominated, a ballot must be held in accordance with rule 54.

The annual general meeting must by resolution decide the number of ordinary members of the Committee (if any) it wishes to hold office for the next year. A single election may be held to fill all of those positions.

If the number of members nominated for the position of ordinary committee member is less than or equal to the number to be elected, the Chairperson of the meeting must declare each of those members to be elected to the position. If the number of members nominated exceeds the number to be elected, a ballot must be held in accordance with rule 54
